Chapter 331: The Eternal Expansion

Sung Jin-Woo's vision of a united multiverse continued to unfold as the Spiral Nexus became the heart of creation, spreading life and abundance across infinite dimensions. Despite reaching the pinnacle of power, his desire to strengthen and guide existence only grew.

New Realms of Balance

Through the Spiral Nexus, Sung Jin-Woo created new realms dedicated to maintaining harmony and fostering growth across all dimensions.

The Realms of Balance:

1. Equilibris Sanctum:

A realm dedicated to resolving conflicts and disputes among civilizations.

Governed by Divine Mediators, beings created to ensure fairness and justice.

2. The Temporal Abyss:

A realm where time flowed differently, allowing scholars and creators to experiment with time-based innovations.

Populated by Chronomancers, divine beings specializing in time manipulation.

3. Luminara Grove:

A realm flourishing with divine flora, acting as the center for life and sustenance across realms.

The grove’s essence is harvested to sustain lesser realms in need of energy.

4. The Forge of Eternity:

A vast realm containing celestial forges where divine tools, weapons, and constructs are created.

Managed by Celestial Smiths, divine beings capable of shaping indestructible materials.

New Divine Creations

Sung Jin-Woo's divine energy gave birth to new beings and tools, each designed to fulfill specific roles in the multiverse.

New Divine Troops:

1. Ethereal Sentinels:

Guardians of the Spiral Nexus, capable of phasing between dimensions.

Equipped with weapons forged from Eternal Adamantite.

2. Abyssal Seekers:

Explorers tasked with uncovering hidden dimensions and mapping uncharted realms.

Enhanced with senses attuned to the fabric of reality.

3. Celestial Wardens:

Protectors of sacred realms and divine flora.

Armed with shields that can reflect any attack.

New Divine Tools:

1. Orb of Omniscience:

Allows the user to perceive all events within a specific realm.

Used by Sung Jin-Woo’s clones and emissaries.

2. Staff of Genesis:

A tool to spark the creation of new stars and realms.

Wielded by Divine Creators under Sung Jin-Woo’s command.

3. Mantle of Eternity:

A protective cloak that shields the wearer from any form of harm.

Granted to Sung Jin-Woo’s most loyal followers.

The Divine Triad’s Growing Influence

As Sung Jin-Woo’s creations flourished, the influence of the Divine Triad grew exponentially.

Impact Across the Realms:

1. Unification of Worship:

Worshippers across realms began to adopt shared rituals and ceremonies, fostering unity.

The Divine Triad became the ultimate symbol of harmony and hope.

2. Technological and Mystical Evolution:

Mana-based technologies advanced to unprecedented levels, rivaling even Sung Jin-Woo’s original creations.

Mystical practices like battle aura and mana manipulation became universal disciplines.

3. Cultural Exchange:

Civilizations shared their traditions and knowledge through the Nexus, enriching each other’s lives.

A Moment of Reflection

From the throne in the Umbra Citadel, Sung Jin-Woo watched the multiverse evolve. His All-Seeing Eyes focused on the interconnected realms, each thriving in its own unique way.

“This is only the beginning,” he thought. “Even with all this progress, there is still so much more to create, to protect, and to guide.”

His divine energy pulsed through the Spiral Nexus, signaling to his creations that the journey of creation and unity was far from over.

The multiverse thrived under Sung Jin-Woo’s guidance, a testament to his unwavering resolve and infinite power. The Eternal Expansion continued, ensuring that all realms, creatures, and civilizations had the opportunity to grow and prosper under the shadow of the Absolute One.
